Career History

She was appointed Probation Officer II in December 1999 and steadily rose through the ranks. She was promoted to Assistant Regional Director in 2014 and to Regional Director in 2020. Her first assignment was in Region VIII, and in 2022, she was assigned as Regional Director in Region VII.

Accomplishments

As the Regional Director of Region VII, she promptly introduced innovations under the One Region, One Direction initiative. Confronted with an unmanageable workload, the initiative implemented strategies such as task force deployment, incentivization, capability building, and most notably, the simplification of the post-sentence investigation report, which was pilot-tested nationwide. This simplified PSIR was warmly welcomed by the weary personnel, not only in Region VII but throughout the entire agency.

Personal Life

As a career woman, she has achieved much and introduced numerous innovations, but she considers her family her greatest accomplishment. She is a devoted and proud mother to four successful children and a grandmother to three grandchildren. Indeed, there is no limit to what she can achieve and will achieve in the future.
