

NELSON CATINDOY BEDUA

SHORT BIOGRAPHY AND SUMMARY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS

CPPO Nelson C. Bedua, presently assigned at Dapitan City PPO, has devoted over two (2) decades to exceptional public service, particularly in the volatile and high-risk province of Basilan. Basilan, within the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao, has historically presented complex and demanding security challenges. Despite these inherent difficulties, CPPO Bedua courageously accepted an assignment in Basilan Parole and Probation Office.

His steadfast commitment to justice, rehabilitation and community development has earned him a distinguished reputation within the region. He has consistently demonstrated exceptional courage, selflessness and commitment to public service, particularly in the conflict-ridden and remote island of Basilan and his leadership in this high-risk area has proven his ability to innovate and lead with bravery, even in the face of tremendous challenges. His efforts have fostered a more compassionate and inclusive approach to justice and rehabilitation in a community that has faced considerable adversity.
